I am trying to change the path of user.ini but I can't find the correct location to change this setting. This is what I tried: I added the following code inside my theme's homepage template file: `getLayout()->getBlock('root')->getConfig('template_paths')?>` I tried replacing the path with this one: `\Magento\User\etc\` But when the page loads, it doesn't show anything. Where is the proper location to change this path? A: `\Magento\User` module is multi-configurable. As you can see from the above link, it's located in `\Magento\User\Model\Config`, and we can get to it with `$this->getConfig()` Hence, you can override the config from the layout, or from a partial (customer section is similar with the case of module config): `Custom Layout (layout/override/base.xml) template_pathsdeveloper/`
