Like I said in my last post the mystery of the 'elegant break' is slowly sinking in. Up until a year ago I had done many 30D and 35D weddings over the years but nothing in the 20's. This wedding was a special case because the venue wasn't free and was already booked by my clients. For me it was a testing of the new lenses and the 50. I want to thank you for all the support with the 'elegant break'. You have clearly inspired me to learn and take risks and that is exactly what I will continue to do. Well I guess there is a possibility. Being so far away from the UK makes it a bit expensive, but I have never bought anything in the UK before, so that is why I am a bit hesitant. I think the 100-400 f4 must be e79caf774b
