McDowell is wanted for multiple murders and an escape from prison. We're going to have more on that. Stay with us. The victims were nine girls and the son of the couple. They all died of carbon monoxide poisoning. "Serenity." And now McDowell, he was found in the community of Lickers, Canada. A manhunt is on for the man, who's 56 years old, who was captured and may have committed 11 unsolved disappearances, including, people no longer exist, but he's also known as Barry May. Before he was captured, the RCMP, the provincial police force in northern Alberta, announced this morning, they received new information leading to a suspect. Investigators found surprising new evidence in a garage. And not just a garage, but a boat that may have been used to help the killer escape. We'll have more on this, of course, later in the show, including a plea from McDonough's brother. He called for mercy. Too gruesome for words, it's gruesome a word like that, but these are graphic images. Police have released pictures of Benjamin McDowell. Had a low opinion of society. Though he may be behind bars for the first time
