After that, a general manager, who is most likely the company president (or COO), will oversee the creation of a strategic plan to. The railway of the United States was one of the greatest feats in all of human history. It was the largest industry in the United States before automobiles and airplanes and the fastest growing industry during the Industrial Revolution. With a clear focus on the North American market, we want to create a set of products for the railroad industry that are simple to use and provide state-of-the-art. The Old Dumpster Diver is a free-to-play idle strategy game. It is inspired by The Legend of Zelda: Twilight Princess and features a similar gameplay style and feel to games like Fire Emblem and Final Fantasy. Its core features include 12 different worlds, four main characters, a day/night time system, over 100 skills and spells, class-specific spells, a full 3D engine, dozens of monsters and 12 dungeons. WEBINAR: On-Demand Railroad Corporation is a major player in the railroad industry. Railroad Corporation (RailCorp) owns and operates freight railroads in North America. At the time of this writing, RailCorp was a $4 billion company that operates 96 miles of track and runs 11,035 active freight cars. Like any other corporation, RailCorp has a vision for the future, a mission statement, and other organizational components. THE MAIN DECISIONS REGARDING RALCORN'S FUTURE The vision statement reads: "RailCorp is the premier rail carrier in North America. We will be the safest, most efficient, most customer-focused railroad in the world." RailCorp's mission statement is, "To be a profitable, strong, and responsible company that provides safe and reliable transportation that achieves significant cost and time savings." One of the more interesting organizational components of RailCorp is its Section 60 agreement. (Note: This is not to be confused with common law marriage. Common law marriage is not legally recognized in the United States.) A Section 60 agreement is a contractual agreement between a company's management and the union representing its employees. The Section 60 agreement is the work contract that RailCorp uses when it runs one or more "open season" operations. An "open season" is a rail operation where a group of railcars are removed from the yard and placed in service. In some cases,
