Image copyright PA Image caption Hakeem was born in Chingford, east London, and later joined the force. An officer who was stabbed in the arm in the midst of a hostage situation is still in hospital after he was shot. Hakeem Krayem, 29, was injured during a security operation in Ilford, east London, on Thursday. Two men were taken to the police station where a third was found with stab injuries. Mr Krayem was taken to hospital as a precaution and remains there with a fractured wrist and elbow, police said. The Metropolitan Police said the injuries were not believed to be life-threatening. The unit had raided a property in the Faith Court residential block at around 12:00 BST as part of an investigation into a suspected burglary. The suspect who was arrested in the raid was later released without charge. The third man was taken to hospital as a precaution and is also now free from the scene. Mr Krayem, originally from Chingford in east London, joined the Met in 2009 and is based at Enfield
